

Name _____

World Affairs Council Student Diplomat Program
Resolution Writing Rubric

	Advanced	Proficient	Basic	Below Basic
Preambulatory Clause	Student includes factual and relevant statements supported with quantifiable statistics and chosen for maximum persuasive effect	Student includes factual and relevant statements that are supported and adequately persuasive	Student includes factual and relevant statements but facts are general and/or not adequately persuasive	Statements are not factual nor relevant
Operative Clause	Student demonstrates thoughtful analytical and logical reasoning by proposing compelling solutions to the problem	Student demonstrates analytical/logical reasoning by proposing realistic and/or meaningful solutions to the problem	Student proposes solutions to the problem but the solutions may be unrealistic AND/OR the solutions do not clearly address the problem	Solutions are disjointed from the problem or too confusing to understand
Format	Student uses required format with no errors	Student uses required format with 1-2 minor errors	Student uses required format with more than 2 minor errors AND/OR 1 large error	Student does not use correct format AND/OR resolution contains significant major and minor errors
Diplomatic Attitude	Student demonstrates outstanding cooperation, responsibility, and willingness to compromise while working with partner to craft resolution	Student demonstrates good cooperation, responsibility, and willingness to compromise while working with partner to craft resolution	Student demonstrates minimal, below average elements of cooperation and/or responsibility while working with partner to craft resolution	Student exhibits little to no cooperation nor acts responsibly while working with partner to craft resolution

RADNOR MIDDLE SCHOOL
Mr. Tom Rendulich and Mr. Terry Canny

Name _____

World Affairs Council Student Diplomat Program
Resolution Writing Rubric