

IRAN: ANCIENT AND MODERN

A Workshop for Teachers co-sponsored by the Education Department, University of Pennsylvania Museum; Middle East Center, University of Pennsylvania; and the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia

Saturday, March 24, 2007

9am to 3pm

University of Pennsylvania Museum – Classroom II
33rd and Spruce Streets
Philadelphia

Please see the agenda and registration form for more information.

*The University of Pennsylvania Museum,
the Middle East Center of the University of Pennsylvania,
and the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia Present:*

Iran: Ancient and Modern

AGENDA

- 8:45 am Registration and refreshments
- 9:00 am Welcome and introductions
- 9:15 am Archaeology in Iran
Dr. Ayse Gürsan- Salzmann
Research Associate, University of Pennsylvania Museum
- 10:30 am Break
- 10:45 am Iranian Politics Today and U.S. Foreign Policy
Dr. Hooshang Amirahmadi
Director of the Center for Middle Eastern Studies
Rutgers University
Founder and President, American Iranian Council
- 12 noon Lunch – a Middle-Eastern lunch buffet will be served
Food and Natural Healing
Meresedeh Moshfeghi, Pharm. D.
- 1:00 pm Iranian Film Today (including discussion of using Iranian film in the classroom)
Dr. Pardis Minucheher
Professor of Persian Language, Literature, and Film
Dept. of Near East Languages and Civilizations
University of Pennsylvania
- 2:30 pm Awarding of door prizes and closing remarks
- 3:00 pm Adjournment

*The University of Pennsylvania Museum,
the Middle East Center of the University of Pennsylvania,
and the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia Present:*

Iran: Ancient and Modern

Registration fee: $25 per person – includes program with four speakers; a materials packet for each participant; coffee, refreshments and a buffet lunch; door prizes and more...

*Five credit hours can be conferred to those seeking Act 48 credit.

PLEASE CONTACT AMANDA CIACCIO AT 215-898-4016 OR ciaccio@sas.upenn.edu with any questions.

Space is limited – register today!

Please print attached registration form and mail with your check to the University of Pennsylvania Museum.

REGISTRATION FORM

Iran: Ancient and Modern Teacher Workshop on March 24, 2007
(to be sent to University of Pennsylvania Museum with check for $25)

Name: _____ School: _____

Home Address: _____

Phone Number (best way to contact you): _____

Email: _____

Please make checks for $25 payable to Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania and send to:

University of Pennsylvania Museum
3260 South Street
Philadelphia, PA 19104
ATTN: Amanda Ciaccio