

Witness Biography: International Court of Justice
Sardar Atiq Ahmed Khan
President of the Muslim Conference

Background:

Sardar Atiq Ahmed Khan is the leader of the Muslim Conference. He has been elected as the new Prime Minister of Pakistan occupied Kashmir (PoK). Atiq is the son of former President of PoK, Qayyum Khan who continues to head the party.

What he adds to the case:

Sardar Atiq Ahmed Khan is an important part of this case because he is in major control of his people. Furthermore, he is one of the hardest workers in trying to solve the problems in his country including the Kashmir dispute. He helps lead his people into making important decisions about human rights and gaining what is rightfully theirs and what they deserve.

View on the Issue:

Sardar Atiq Ahmed Khan has said that the people of Kashmir will not be bowed down before the atrocities of Indian forces and would continue to struggle for liberation of their motherland. He is behind his country and believes in helping them fight for control of the Kashmir territory. Sardar Atiq said the Indian regime despite using negative tactics and utilizing all resources has miserably failed in changing the minds of Kashmiris.

Quotes:

'The Muslim Conference has played a major role in keeping this spirit alive', he said. 'No decision will be taken without the permission of Kashmiris in regard to the Kashmir dispute', he maintained.
